VERSE 1

When my heart grows cold, your Spirit's love takes hold
When my weary bones can not be consoled
I remember, "You'll never forsake me."
For your Word says, "You can not deny yourself."

VERSE 2

When I humbly bring, my life an offering
And I feel the sting of all my faltering
I remember, "That You were forsaken."
For your Word says, "You died and now I'm alive!"
I'm alive! I'm alive! I'm alive!

BRIDGE

You raised me from death unto life
Seated in the heavenly place in Christ
Adopted as sons, can it be?
You rescued me into a family

VERSE 3

When our identity is wrapped in what we see
Instead of what's unseen in eternity
We remember, "The kingdom is present."
And your Word says that, "All things will be made new."

VERSE 4

When in one voice we sing to our redeeming King
Together rejoicing in our suffering

We declare that, "The kingdom is coming."
And with all creation sing, "We're alive!"
We're alive! We're alive! We're alive!
